ITINERARY DAY 1

---

UDAIPUR

LAKE SIDE WELCOME

---

Arrive in the City of Lakes and check in. The day is at leisure, but chauffeured sightseeing can be arranged for those who wish to explore, from the grandeur of the City Palace to Saheliyon Ki Bari or a tranquil boat ride on Lake Pichola. In the evening, join your fellow travellers for a pre-drive briefing, followed by dinner.

---

HOTEL: The Ananta Udaipur
MEALS: Dinner

DAY 2

---

MOUNT ABU

HILL STATION HERITAGE

---

After breakfast, depart for Mount Abu, Rajasthan's only hill station, a timeless retreat nestled amidst the Aravallis. On arrival, enjoy lunch before spending the afternoon at leisure or exploring the exquisite marble artistry of the Dilwara Jain Temples, the charm of Nakki Lake, or the sweeping views from Sunset Point.

---

HOTEL: Palace Hotel Bikaner House
MEALS: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

DAY 3

---

LITTLE RANN

STEPWELLS AND SUN TEMPLES

---

After breakfast, depart for Patan and visit Rani Ki Vav, a UNESCO World Heritage stepwell renowned for its intricate sculptures. Continue to the Sun Temple at Modhera, an ode to the solar deity and one of Gujarat's most exquisite monuments. After lunch, drive to Dasada, the gateway to the Little Rann of Kutch, and unwind over dinner.

---

HOTEL: Rann Riders Eco Lodge

MEALS: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

A camel stands in a vast, flat, light-colored landscape under a clear blue sky. The camel is facing left, its head slightly tilted up. It has a thick brown coat and a long neck. Around its neck is a decorative collar made of many small, colorful beads in shades of green, yellow, and red. On its back, it carries a saddle or pack decorated with vibrant, multi-colored fabrics and tassels. A red rope is attached to its halter and extends down towards the ground. In the far distance, another small camel can be seen on the horizon.

DAY 4

---

DHOLAVIRA

SALT AND CIVILISATION

---

Set out after breakfast for Dholavira, passing through the Little Rann. Keep an eye out for the Indian Wild Ass and migratory birds across the stark salt flats. Upon arrival, enjoy lunch before exploring the Harappan UNESCO World Heritage Site and its archaeological museum. Return in the evening for dinner.

---

HOTEL: Evoke Dholavira

MEALS: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

DAY 5

---

GREAT RANN

WHITE RANN MAGIC

---

After breakfast, drive the famed “Road to Heaven”, a breathtaking stretch where the white salt desert meets the endless sky, creating the illusion of driving into infinity. Visit Kalo Dungar, Kutch’s highest vantage point, and time permitting, stop at Gandhi Nu Gam or visit Nirona to witness rare Rogan art and traditional crafts. Arrive at Dhordo for lunch, followed by an unforgettable sunset over the White Rann, replaced by a glowing moon. Dinner follows.

---

HOTEL: White Rann Resort Dhordo

MEALS: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner

DAY 6

---

AHMEDABAD

LIVING HERITAGE

---

Wake early to catch the sunrise on the Rann, then depart for Ahmedabad after breakfast. On arrival, relax and soak in the city's architectural and cultural legacy. In the evening, savour an authentic Gujarati thali on the terrace of the heritage hotel, a restored haveli that embodies Ahmedabad's timeless charm; the perfect finale to your journey.

---

HOTEL: The House of MG

MEALS: Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner
